

Seeking Talented Performers to Unleash the Power of Rock 'n' Roll at South Jackson Performing Arts Center

South Jackson Community Playhouse is thrilled to announce its upcoming auditions for the electrifying and iconic musical Rock of Ages. This highly anticipated production will transport audiences back to the days of big hair, big dreams, and even bigger guitar solos. With a talent-packed cast and a jukebox full of chart-topping hits, Rock of Ages promises to be an '80s rock 'n' roll extravaganza that will leave audiences cheering for more.

Rock of Ages is a high-energy musical that captures the very essence of the '80s rock scene. We are seeking performers who can bring both raw talent and a genuine love for the music to the stage. This show will be a celebration of rock 'n' roll.

Auditions will be held on the mainstage at South Jackson Dec. 30 at 2pm, Dec 31 at 2pm, Jan 2 at 6pm with callbacks, if needed, Jan 3 at 6pm.

Seeking talented performers with strong singing voices and dynamic stage presence. Whether you're a seasoned performer or a newcomer to the stage, this is an excellent opportunity to showcase your skills and be a part of a production that will rock the house! Please prepare a 2 minute song from the show OR in the style of the show. Be prepared to read from the script as well.

Rock of Ages will be performed at South Jackson Performing Arts Center April 5-14, 2024. It tells the story of aspiring rock star Drew and small-town girl Sherrie as they chase their dreams on the Sunset Strip in Los Angeles. Set in the 1980s, the show is a portal to the 80's, featuring some of the biggest rock anthems of the time. From Bon Jovi to Journey, Poison to Twisted Sister, this musical showcases the unforgettable music that defined a generation and we are excited to bring it to the stage.
